

Treasure every encounter, for it will never recur.

Comes from the book written by Souji Yamanoue (1544~1590), who is a disciple of Sennorikyu.

I think the attitude will work not only for tea-making but also for other experiences.

We should treat people well and do our best for our guests since each meeting is unique.

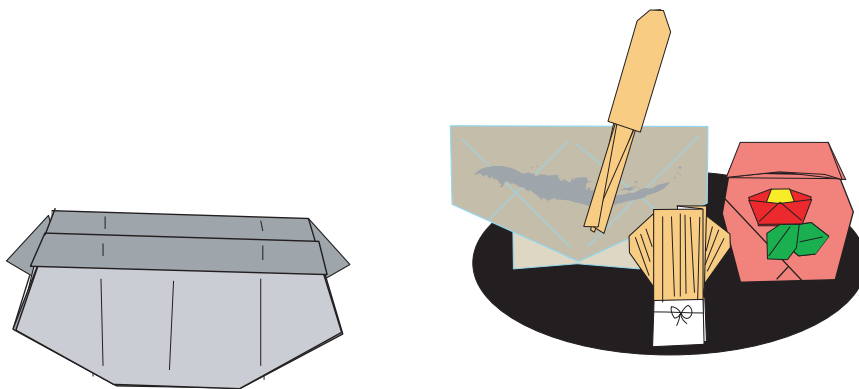

Diagram for Tea Bowl >>